

CATTLE INSPECTORS GET TWO RUSTLERS

Officers Trail Suspects into Navajo Reservation; Depredations Extensive

PRESCOTT, August 1.—After several months of strenuous work on the part of Arizona cattle inspectors in the northeastern part of the state, two arrests have been made of men charged with cattle rustling and they are now in the county jail at Holbrook awaiting trial. The men were caught by Inspector E. P. Howell, who was forced to go after them clear into the Navajo reservation. One of the men arrested is named Day and is a squaw man, and considerable difficulty was experienced in getting him away from the reservation on account of the objections of the Indians.

The cattle thieves in that portion of the state, it is estimated, have gotten away with some hundred or more head of cattle in the last six months. The plan generally used is to drive the cattle over the New Mexico line, kill them, burn the hides and sell the meat in Gallup, New Mexico. A number of the burned hides were dug up by the inspectors which gave them a clue to get the men.

POCOHONTAS, Ark., August 1.—A pearl weighing 34 grains was found in Black River last week. A large rosebud pearl was also found. The river at this point is not dotted with pearl hunters.

WASHINGTON SOCIALISTS SELECT WOMAN AS THEIR CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNORSHIP

If the Socialists are successful in the state of Washington this fall a woman will occupy the executive mansion at Tacoma. Her name is Miss Anna Malley. Although she was not widely known throughout the state the Socialists recently nominated her for governor. She is preparing to make a strenuous campaign—both speaking and literary. She will be a lot better known by the time of the fall elections.

CONSTIPATION IS A MENACE IN SUMMER

Regularity of Bowels Very Important to Health at This Time

At no time should people more closely watch the condition of their bowels than during hot weather. Summer conditions contribute in various ways to cause constipation, but whatever the cause the trouble should be quickly corrected; constipation, if neglected, leads directly to serious, and often fatal diseases.

Some people find that certain fruits have laxative effects, but this cannot be depended upon; a mild laxative tonic that will act gently and positively, without griping or shock to the system, is far preferable. The compound of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is highly recommended as being easy and natural in action, pleasant to the taste, and certain in its effect. A dose of Syrup Pepsin at night will restore normal action in the morning, carrying off the heaviness and bloating. Salts, purgative waters and cathartics should be avoided, as they upset the entire system and afford at best but temporary relief. By cleansing the bowels and removing the foreign matter that irritates and inflames the tissues, a spoonful of Syrup Pepsin will quickly check the summer diarrhoea that is so weakening. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists for fifty cents a bottle, the larger, family size costing one dollar. A free trial bottle can be obtained postpaid by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

POPE HAS MODIFIED THE NUPTIAL LAW

Priests No Longer Forbidden to Wed Catholic to Protestant Refusing Child Pledge

ST. LOUIS, Mo., August 1.—Protestants wishing to marry Catholics need no longer sign an agreement to rear the children resulting from the marriage in the Roman Catholic faith. Neither will they be obliged to pledge themselves to refrain from interfering with the Catholic consort's performance of religious duties.

The change has been brought about by the repeal by Pope Pius of that portion of the decree, "No temere," according to "The Act," the official organ of the Vatican. The repeal becomes effective at once. The "no temere" was a decree issued by Pope Pius himself at Easter, 1908. It obliged every Protestant who wished to marry a member of the Catholic faith to sign an ante-nuptial promise that he would refrain from interfering with the Catholic in the exercise of his or her religious duties. Further, the non-Catholic party was required to pledge himself or herself to have all the children resulting from the marriage baptized Catholics, and to have them educated in Catholic schools.

The decree required that these promises be made and signed in the presence of the priest who was to perform the marriage ceremony. In cases where non-Catholic parties refused to so obligate themselves, no priest was allowed to perform the marriage ceremony. In cases where non-Catholic parties refused so to obligate themselves, no priest was allowed to interfere. If the couple went to a Protestant minister and were married, the Catholic party to the marriage was excommunicated.

According to the instructions contained in the repeal of the "no temere," the non-Catholic party will be asked still to sign the ante-nuptial promises, as was previously the custom. Should he or she refuse to so obligate him or herself, the priest may perform the marriage, notwithstanding the refusal.

The Rev. D. S. Phelan, D. D., comments fully on the repeal of the "no temere" in this week's number of The Western Watchman.

"Pope Pius' action in this repeal is sure to create a stir in Catholic circles throughout the country," Father Phelan said. "Protestants marrying Catholics have always regarded the enforced signing of these ante-nuptial promises as a hardship, and an unnecessary humiliation."

The court of appeals of St. Louis recently decided that these promises had no legal force. The law requiring these promises is older than the "no temere," which simply enlarged on and confirmed the law.

Emerson on Woman Suffrage.

2,000 CARS PRODUCE FROM SALT RIVER

Valley Farmers Send Many Loads of Cantaloupes to Eastern Markets

PHOENIX, August 1.—Two thousand carloads of all kinds of local grown products were shipped out of the Salt river valley during the month of July, is the estimate made today by Secretary Harry Welch, of the Phoenix and Maricopa board of trade.

That Secretary Welch's figures are not overestimated is shown by the statement of both A. R. Gattner, of the Southern Pacific, and W. A. Goldsworthy, of the Santa Fe railroad companies. Both agents were interviewed today and remarked that the estimate of Mr. Welch was a conservative one, says the Phoenix Gazette.

Almost the same amount of cars were shipped out in June, that month being very heavy on account of hay shipments. July has been a big month owing to the cantaloupe season, more of the melons having been shipped out this month than ever heretofore, and the growers obtaining better prices than in the past.

Four or five carloads of cantaloupes went out today over the Santa Fe. The cantaloupe season, as far as shipping is concerned, will be over in about ten days. However, there will be plenty of cantaloupes left for Phoenix and vicinity.

Cantaloupes could be grown earlier and later than July in the Salt river valley. The growing season is arranged so the product will find a good market at eastern points in the present season.

The fact that 2,000 carloads of products were shipped out during the month just ending is a great boost to the valley and shows what wonders irrigation is accomplishing. More than a thousand acres of cantaloupes will be planted at Glendale next season, good production, high prices and excellent profits having greatly encouraged the growers this year.

Along with the shipments of cantaloupes this month went carloads of watermelons, cattle, hay, grains, honey and many other products.

GREAT "VITAGRAPH MASTERPIECE AT THE ROYAL THEATRE

Beginning with today's matinee, the Royal will present for two days only, the great Vitagraph masterpiece "Mockery" with Marshall P. Wilder in the leading role. Mere words would utterly fail to do justice to this remarkable and artistic triumph of the great Vitagraph star. This wonderful dramatization presents Mr. Wilder in the greatest impersonation of a court jester that has ever appeared on stage or screen. There is something unusually good in this high-class photoplay that will appeal to the critical audiences that patronize the Royal theatre.

Another especially worthy mention is "The Upgrade." This is the banner production of the series of photoplays that were recently taken by the Lubin company at Douglas, Ariz. A number of prominent people of Douglas who are well known in Bisbee took part in this photoplay which makes it doubly interesting to the people of this district. "Tales Weekly," number 24, is an unusually interesting number of this popular picture periodical, showing many of the most notable current events of the week both in this country and across the water.
